Steve Woodard's Baseball Camp is a unique baseball camp for kids from ages 6 to 18.

Steve along with other former Major League players, will spend hours helping campers to develop their baseball/softball skills. Everything from hitting to pitching will be covered. Infielders and outfielders will learn many of the techniques that the Pro's use to help them become better defenders. Pitchers will have the opportunity to learn different grips and how to become a better pitcher. And hitters, this is what we are known for! We will give plenty of instruction on the basics of hitting, tee- work, soft toss, live pitching, and even base running; we cover it all!
